ZEPPELIN BEGINS REGULAR AIR SERVICE $350,000 COMES FROM BUILDING FUND

McClellan Writes On Site Money

Delegate's Secretary Shows How $350,000 Was Secured By Kuhio

The first definite information as to the method used by Delegate Kuhio to secure the $350,000 for the enlargement of the Mahukua site to the whole block, is contained in a letter received this morning by Fred L. Waldron, President of the Merchants' Association from George B. McClellan, Secretary to the Delegate.

This letter states—written before the money was assured—that the only way that the $350,000 can be obtained is by a transfer of that sum from the building authorization, the deficit in the building appropriation to be made up by the next Congress. The letter reads as follows:

June 9, 1910.

Mr. Fred L. Waldron, President, the

Honolulu Merchants' Association. Dear Sir: Replying to your joint cablegram with Mr. Coose, I have cabled to the Association and to the Chamber of Commerce asking that each wire to Chairman Bartholdt to urge the necessity of securing the entire Mahukua block for our Federal building.

The Treasury Department is very anxious to have this done, and I am glad to be able to say that we have some encouragement that the Delegate will be able to secure this very great concession from the committee. It is likely that it will have to be done by transferring the sum of $350,000 from the building author-

DAYTON, O., June 22.—Judson Harmon was renominated for Governor of Ohio on the Democratic ticket today and was endorsed by the convention as the next Democratic candidate for President of the United States.

The convention went on record as being strongly opposed to the Payne tariff law and the policy of the Taft Administration. Secretary of the Interior Ballinger came in for strong condemnation.

YACHT HAWAII ARRIVES SAFELY

This morning at 7 o'clock several cables were received by Honolulu people and they all stated that the yacht Hawaii had reached San Pedro safely after a trip that would have been a 32-day one at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Captain Wilder has taken his yacht through in great style, and the voyage has been completed in fairly fast time. It was expected that as the Hawaiian representative approached the Coast, the winds might prove light. According to the meager cables received, the wind was contrary most of the way, and at least one gale was encountered.

H. A. Wilder got a message from his brother this morning, and it was as follows: "Arrived, all well, calm and contrary winds." Another cable was to Mr. Vetsion, and it stated that the yacht had arrived and had met with one stiff blow.

The Hawaii will have seventeen days in which to get ready for the transpacific race, and in that time she will be cleaned and refitted with racing sails. Everything that can be done to prepare the yacht for the long race will be done, and the Hawaii should be in the best of condition when she starts out in company with the other six yachts.

Captain Anderson of the A-H steamer, Nevada, which arrived in port this morning, reports that on June 16 he passed a two-masted schooner, painted white. The vessel was about eight miles to the northward of the Nevada, on the port tack, on the wind, sailing about ENE. The schooner set no signals to be reported, and Captain Anderson took her to be the yacht Hawaii.

The Hawaii, at the time she was sighted by the Nevada, was 550 miles from San Francisco, and about 725 from San Pedro. The yacht was traveling at the rate of about six knots an hour when met by the freighter.

FRANK HARVEY PASSES ON

Frank Reddington Kaluaoku Harvey, a member of the Senate of the Legislature of 1909, died unexpectedly this morning at 2 o'clock at the Queen's Hospital. He would have been 54 years old, had he lived, on September 12, this year.

The late Senator was a conspicuous figure in matters political. He was especially thought so by the native Hawaiians for his action which resulted in the release of a goodly number of lepers from the settlement. On account of this work, he was frequently mentioned as a probable candidate for Delegate to Congress.

MORE TROOPS ON BORDER

CANANEA, Mex., June 22.—Additional troops have arrived on the border to assist in putting down any trouble that may threaten during the election which will be held on Sunday.

YES, IT WAS MOVING DAY

Tears and perspiration mingled as the steamer Wilhelmina pulled away from the Matson wharf, packed and jammed with humanity, this morning.

It was one of the largest outpouring of the populace that has witnessed the sailing of a coast bound liner in months. For an hour before the Matson liner cast off her lines and headed into the stream, the wharf in the vicinity of the gangway, was a seething mass of people, mostly flower-laden, some smiling and happy, others in tears or ready to break forth at the slightest provocation, while here and there appeared a happy go

TENER FOR GOVERNOR

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 2.—The Republicans today nominated Congressman Tener for Governor. President Taft and the tariff were strongly commended.

ZEPPELIN STARTS REGULAR PASSENGER AIRSHIP SERVICE

COUNT ZEPPELIN.

DUSSELDORF, June 22.—Count Zeppelin today carried twenty passengers from here to Friederichshafen, in a monster, luxuriously-fitted dirigible airship, making the trip in nine hours. This is the beginning of a regular airship passenger service to be established between these two points. Count Zeppelin has had the assistance of the German Government in his wonderful undertaking. Plans are perfected for several more airships of greater capacity than the one used today in the initial passenger service.

JEFFRIES ARRIVES

RENO, Nev., James J. Jeffries arrived here today. He has taken up quarters on the outskirts of town, west of the railway depot. Johnson is expected to arrive tomorrow. No further interference is expected from officials.

It takes a man a lifetime to learn how to live, and then he is ready to die.

AUSTRALIANS WIN OUT

No Report On Bribery Case

Grand Jury Again Adjourns And No Results Now Expected

The Territorial Grand Jury again adjourned this morning without rendering a report on the charges of attempted bribery that were made by Supervisor Aylett against William Crawford.

It was believed certain that the Grand Jury would report on the case this morning and their failure to do so is a great surprise among the officials.

EXODUS OF RUSSIANS ON WILHELMINA

Seventy-five Russians, mostly men, with a sprinkling of women and children sailed for San Francisco this morning as passengers on the Matson Navigation liner Wilhelmina. That a well organized effort is being made to recruit laborers in Hawaii for work on the Pacific coast is apparent by the constant migration of recently arrived immigrants.

The Russians who left Honolulu today appeared to be plentifully supplied with funds to carry them through. The heads of some families purchased transportation for as high as seven people.

The crowd traveled steering and their passage represents an investment of about thirty dollars. Among the immigrants who decided to shake the dust of hospitable Hawaii from his shoes was one D. E. Lioschko, who is known to the Territorial officials and the local police as an agitator. This man has heretofore been a close and consistent henchman of Vaschell, who is now serving a three months' sentence at Oahu Prison. Of those who have already departed, a goodly percentage are numbered from among the big lot of Russians who arrived at Honolulu the middle part of last October. Other recruits come from those Russian laborers who arrived here during November, May and the present month. It is said that several Russians who came here by the Nippon Maru and the Siberia refused plantation employment and they also joined the exodus. The Russians had but little to say this morning. About all that could be gained from them was that they intended to get work on the coast perhaps in the mines, lumber mills or
